Perpetuating techniques which contribute to a longevity lifestyle

Even more on the Pluto/Saturn conjunction and Jupiter...

The only thing that doesn't change is change itself and that is certainly the case these days. All my consultations are done virtually on Zoom or FaceTime and I'm thinking about changing the format of the newsletter to hopefully make it easier for you to read. But that's just on the personal level. Covid has changed everything for the population as a whole in terms of social awareness. Politics, music, all the arts in fact, are viewed electronically and virtually. For instance, the MTV awards blew my mind with its electronically fake audience, the prerecorded episodes that were made to look like it was happening in real time, and outrageous scenes. Weird but totally creative and that's just television. So what does this discussion have to do with Astrology?

We are still under the influence of the Pluto / Saturn conjunct and with the addition of Jupiter, all three of which are retrograde as I write this, although Jupiter turned direct on September 14th. When planets make their apparent backward motion, the energies become internalized. R e v i e w, reconsideration, reevaluation, and reparation are dominant as we prepare for change. Because Pluto moves so slowly now, the deepest contents from the unconscious are coming to the surface of the psyche, Remember, Pluto is the farthest outpost of energy in archetypal astrology. It represents the deepest level of the unconscious and is the jumping off place from the solar system. It therefore can represent the best and/or the worst of us as individuals. Because its orb is so elliptical, the speed in which it moves through the zodiac is highly irregular. In the 1960's through the 1990's, Pluto moved rapidly, change happened fast. Now by comparison, Pluto crawls, prolonging its effects and going much more deeply into the psyche. How do you want your Karma: hard, fast, and radical? Or softer, but of longer duration, seemingly lasting forever?

With the addition of transiting Jupiter conjunct the Pluto / Saturn energy, emotions become exaggerated and hyped up. But there is also hopefulness and positive consideration for change. With Jupiter in the mix there is also increased divisiveness since Jupiter expands, increases, magnifies anything it considers. So we have at least two very different factions in our country as well as around the world and both sides feel in the right. This could be a good thing in that it has awakened the electorate as both sides preach for voting. Quite frankly we are in the mess we are in because we have been asleep for so many years,

Good can come out of anything

ignoring all the signs of this dissension we are currently participating in. Astrology is interesting in that historically we have seen this enantiodromia, the running of the opposites, only to be brought up short so the corrections can be made. That's where we are now and as the two remaining planets turn direct this Autumn we will begin to see a fundamental change. But I don't think it will come without effort because we have the famous Jupiter / Saturn conjunction in December. I wrote extensively about this in the last newsletter. This once every 20 year conjunction has many times coincided with a major catastrophe: the deaths of many of our presidents, attempts to kill, and a bombing. Who can say if something will occur this time since the conjunction occurs at the cusp of Aquarius. The conjunction will happen in December, after the election.

As I have said, on a personal level these planets are going to, or already have, affected you in the area in which they show up in your chart. In the water houses: Cancer, Scorpio, and Pisces, their effect will be mostly emotional, bringing scars and unresolved issues to the surface. So many people are homebound due to the virus and have had plenty of opportunity to confront themselves, providing an opportune time to heal. In the Earth houses: Taurus, Virgo, and Capricorn, issues confronted will center around more concrete areas such as money, health, and status. In the Fire houses: Aries, Leo, and Sagittarius, areas of concern will be directed more to life directions. And finally in the Air houses: Gemini, Libra, and Aquarius, issues will be found in the area of interactions with relationships. This can be a great opportunity to grow in many ways. These three planets together for such a long time have tremendous energy for the radical changing of one's beliefs. Remember, Astrology does not come to destroy but to build. If I thought that it was bad, I could never do this, but for over 40 years I can truly say there is no such thing as bad astrology. It's our interpretation and use of it that causes the trouble.

Update! Recording Changes

In addition to doing readings on Zoom, Skype, or FaceTime which lets us see each other, I can provide an MP3 electronically since CD players are rapidly becoming obsolete! I encourage you to download the free Zoom app (or use FaceTime which is already included with every iPhone, iPad, and Mac computer) and get someone to show you how easy it is to use (if you don't know already). It is so enjoyable to see your face when we do the readings! Doing this new stuff is nervy to me, too, but it's a great challenge to stay current with all the new technologies.

Adano Audio / Video Recordings

...are available FOR FREE to anyone who will send Paul a 64GB USB flash drive. Merely send the USB flash drive and include return postage. The archives have been cleaned up as much as possible with today's technology. Paul is constantly reviewing tapes to see if the newest technology can improve them even further. It's an amazing body of work in Adano's own voice and unedited so that the videos and audios have his great energy unadulterated. If you have anything of Adano's that needs to be archived, send it to Paul. In addition to Adano's website (<https://www.adanoley.com>), Adano is also on Facebook (<https://www.facebook.com/adano.ley>)!

Reminder: An archive of all Longevity Circuit newsletters for the past 31 years are available on my website!

Autumn Calendar

The Equinoxes mean equal days and nights. The Sun is moving lower in the sky in the Northern Hemisphere. Do you notice already the angle of the Sun is different coming through your window? The Autumn Equinox, as the Sun moves into Libra, occurs on September 22nd this year.

Starting with the outermost planet, Pluto has been retrograde since April 25th and will turn direct on October 4th. For most of this time it has been stationed at 22° Capricorn. It has actually been around 22° since February 2019 and will be until mid November. That means that you could be having a continual transit from Pluto for almost 2 years! And that does not account for the orb around the exact number because the influence of Pluto gradually fades in and out. As it is said, “The mills of God grind slowly, yet they grind exceeding small.”

Neptune has been retrograde since June 22nd at 20° Pisces, its home, and will turn direct on November 28th at 18° Pisces. Being in its own home, Pisces has greater strength for good or for bad. This planet has no easy definition being the ruler of all things ephemeral, but right now we can give Pisces some of the credit for the Virus and all the conflicting advice about taking care of it. This amazing planet speaks of our deepest spirituality, our fondest guilts and gullibility, as well as our self-undoing!

Uranus just turned retrograde on August 15th at 10° Taurus. Not so happy in Taurus, this airy flowing unseen energy is inhibited in earth-loving Taurus, but it is just that stress that accounts for so much innovation and invention. Uranus won't turn direct until January and unlike Pluto and Neptune, its influence is exact and sudden.

Saturn turns direct this week, Sept 28th at 25° Capricorn. Saturn gives us bones, skyscrapers, rules, shoulds and oughts. Without Saturn we'd be a mess, but our ego, thoroughly crushed by our minds, views Saturn differently. And when Saturn ponies up to Pluto, you might as well call “Truce.” These two formidable energies will both be direct by early October. Many of the things people and politics have not yet addressed will be addressed during the forward motion of the conjunct. Saturn will go into Aquarius to stay for a couple of years on December 18th after which the trend will be broken. Since the conjunction occurs in the chart of the USA in the 12th house, I believe that much has been going on secretly and we might not know for a long time all that has gone under the bridge.

Jupiter turned direct on September 12th at 17° Capricorn. Jupiter will also move into Aquarius in December on the 20th and will have made the conjunct with Saturn in the middle of that month. We shall soon know what tricks, if any, this combination is capable of.

Mars is also retrograde. At this particular astrological time a retrograde Mars in Aries, its home, is significant. Mars is like a trigger, an impetus for action especially in its ruling constellation. Precipitous action can be useless because timing is always of the essence. Mars turns direct, unleashing its energy, on November 15th at 15° Aries, energizing and confronting the Capricorn planets, bringing all the issues to a culmination.

All in all, this appears to be a very volatile and uncertain time and with the election occurring in its midst, anything can happen. It becomes ever more important to exercise your right to vote!
